All these Tracts were taken up by warrants bearing dates so long ago as the 18th of March 1794 : the titles are believed to be indisputable. Taxes on some of the 41 Tracts first mentioned, have been paid, and from information received, and which will be communicated to any persons desisous of purchasing, it is believed that but a small sum remains due upon those Tracts, for the recovery of which no measures have been taken against the lands.

For the accommodation of purchasers, each Tract will be sold esparately. The draft and papers respecting the title may be examined at any time before the sale, on application at the Office of William Meredith, No. 88, south Fourth Street, Philadelphia.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION ### OF THE ## Bank of Pittsburgh.

To all persons to whom these Presents may come, or in any wise concern :

BE it known and made manifest, That we the subscribers, believing that an association for the purpose of making loans to the farmers, mechanics, merchants and manufacturers of the state of Pennsylvania, upon moderate and reasonable terms, is calculated to advance the interest of commerce, and encourage a spirit of improvement in manufactures, agriculture, arts and sciences, to aid the exertions of honest industry, and to repress the unlawful and pernicious practice of usury ; have formed a company or limited partnership, and do hereby associate and agree with each other, to conduct business in the manner hereinafter specified and described, by and under the name and title of "THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE BANK OF PITTSBURGH," and we do hereby mutually covenant, declare and agree, that the following are and shall be the fundamental articles of this our association and agreement with each other, by which we and all persons who at any time may transact business with the said company, shall be bound and conducted.

Article the 1st.

THE capital stock of the said company shall consist of five hundred thousand dollars, in money of the United States, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The amount of the shares subscribed for, shall be paid by the several and respective subscribers, into the hands of the directors hereinafter named, in gold or silver, or in bank notes equivalent thereto, of the chartered banks of Pennsylvania, in the following manner, to wit : Five dollars shall be paid on each share at the time of subscribing these articles, and five dollars shall be paid on each share on every succeeding thirty days, until the payment of each share so subscribed is completed ; and in case of the non-payment of the said sums of money, at the time or times specified, when they become payable, the share or shares subscribed for and upon which such default of payment arises, shall be forfeited to the company, together with all and every sum or sums of money previously paid thereon.

Article the 2nd.

The directors for the time being shall have power, at any time hereafter, and they are hereby authorised to extend and increase the capital stock to any amount not exceeding seven hundred thousand dollars, by receiving subscriptions for disposing of shares of one hundred dollars each to any person or persons in such manner as they shall think fit, in which case, such new subscribers or purchasers shall become parties to this association : Provided, that if any profit shall be made by such disposition, the same shall accrue to the use of all the stockolders, and be distributed accordingly.

Article the 3rd.

That the following persons are hereby constituted and appointed directors of the said bank, and shall continue to hold their respective offices until the first Monday in April, one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and until they or their successors shall be duly elected as herein provided ; and all elections for directors or other officers of this company shall be by ballot : and the persons having the highest number of votes, shall be declared to be duly elected :

DIRECTORS.

Article the 4th.

Should any vacancy at any time happen among the directors, by death, resignation or otherwise, the remaining directors for the time being, shall elect a director to fill such vacancy until the next election, and on the first Monday of April one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and in every succeeding year, a general meeting of the stockholders of the said bank, shall be holden at such place as the board of directors shall appoint, by notice to be published in all the newspapers printed in the borough of Pittsburgh, at least twenty days antecedent to such meeting, for the purpose of electing twenty one directors for the ensuing year ; and the said directors, thus elected, shall, at their first meeting after such election in each year, choose one of their number as president, provided that in case it should happen, at any time, that an election of directors should not be made upon any day when pursuant to these articles it ought to have been made, it shall be lawful on any other day thereafter to hold and make an election of directors in such manner as the directors for the time being, or a majority of them, shall direct and appoint.

Article the 5th.

None but a stockholder, being a citizen of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, shall be eligible as a director, and no director of any other bank shall be at the same time a director of this bank, nor shall the governor, or secretary of the commonwealth, any officer in the treasury department, in the office of accounts, or in the land office of this state, any member of Congress, or any person holding or exercising any office of trust or profit under the United States, nor any person holding the office or appointment of a judge, in any of the courts of this commonwealth, be a director of this bank, and if any one of the directors after being elected, shall at any time during the term for which he shall have been chosen, cease to be a stockholder, the remaining directors, or a majority of them shall at their next meeting pass an order declaring him thus ceasing to be a stockholder as aforesaid to be no longer a director of the said bank, and shall forthwith proceed to fill up by a new election his place for the remainder of the term for which he shall have been elected.

Article the 6th.

The board of directors for the time being shall have power to elect a president and a cashier, and such other officers and clerks under them, as shall be necessary for executing the business of the company, and to allow them such compensation for their services respectively, as they may deem reasonable : and shall be capable of exercising such other power, and authorities, and of making, revising, altering or annulling such bye laws and regulations for the government of the company and that of their officers and affairs, as they or a majority of them shall from time to time deem expedient, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state or these articles of association, and to use, employ, dispose of the joint stock, funds or property of the company (subject only to the restrictions herein contained) as to them, or a majority of them shall seem expedient.

Article the 7th.

Not less than eleven directors shall form a board for the transaction of business, of whom the president shall always be one, except in case of sickness or necessary absence ; in which case his place may be supplied by any other director, whom a majority of the directors present shall nominate for that purpose.

Article the 8th.

The number of votes to which each stockholder shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he shall hold, in the proportions following, that is to say, for each share not exceeding two shares, one vote ; for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten shares, one vote ; for every four shares above ten, and not exceeding thirty, one vote ; for every six shares above thirty, and not exceeding sixty, one vote ; for every eight shares above sixty, and not exceeding one hundred, one vote ; and for every ten shares above one hundred, one vote ; but no person, co-partnership, or body politic, shall be entitled to a greater number than thirty votes, and no share shall confer a right of suffrage, which shall not have been holden three callender months previous to the day of election, and unless it be holden by the person in whose name it appears, absolutely, and bona fide in his own right, or that of his wife, and for his or her sole use and benefit, or as executor, or administrator, or guardian, or in the right and use of some co-partnership, corporation, or society, of which he or she may be a member, and not in trust for, or to the use of any other person. And such stockholders, qualified as aforesaid, not residing within the county of Allegheny, shall be permitted to vote by proxy, under such regulations as the directors from time to time shall enact.

Article the 9th.

Not more than sixteen of the directors elected by the stockholders, and actually in office, exclusive of the president, shall be eligible for more than one year, in any term of two years ; but the director who shall be president at the time of an election, may always be re-elected.

Article the 10th.

A majority of the directors shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders for the purposes relative to the concerns of the company, giving at least thirty days notice in all the newspapers printed in the Borough of Pittsburgh, and specifying in such notice the object or objects of such meeting.

Article the 11th.

The cashier, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall be required to give bond, with two or more sureties, to the satisfaction of the directors, in such sum as the board of directors may by their bye laws, order and direct from time to time, with condition for the faithful performance of his duties.

Article the 12th.

That in case of the death, resignation or removal of the president, the directors for the time being, shall appoint from their number, one person to fill the vacancy, who shall hold the office during the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was elected.

Article the 13th.

The shares of the capital stock of the company, shall be tranferable on their books, agreeably to such rules, and in conformity to such laws, as may from time to time be established in that respect, by the board of directors.

Article the 14th.

No transfer of stock in this company shall be considered as binding upon the company, unless made in a book or books kept for that purpose by the company ; and it is further expressly agreed and declared, that any stockholder, who shall transfer in manner aforesaid, all his stock or shares whatever, shall thenceforth cease to be a member of this company ; and any person or persons whatever, who shall accept a transfer of any stock or share in this company, shall thenceforth become and be a member of this company, according to the articles of association.

Article the 15th.

No director of this company shall, as drawer, or endersor, of any note or notes, bill or bills of exchange, or in any other way, be permitted to obtain on loan or discount, out of the said bank, or be indebted thereto, at any time for discount, to a greater amount than five thousand dollars, agreeably to the rules of discounting, that may or shall be subscribed by the directors of the said bank : nor shall any director be entitled to any emolument unless the same shall have been allowed by the stockholders at a general meeting, but the president of the said bank shall be entitled to receive such compensation for his extraordinary attendance at the said bank, as the stockholders at a general meeting shall deem reasonable.

Article the 16th.

That the lands, tenements and hereditaments, which it shall be lawful for the said company to hold, shall be only such as shall be necessary for its immediate accommodation, in relation to its convenient transacting of its business ; and such as shall have been bona fide mortgaged to the company by way of security, or conveyed to it, or some person in trust, for the use of the company, in satisfaction or security for money actual loaned, or advanced, or in satisfaction of, or security for debts previously contracted with, or due to, the said company, or purchased at sales, upon judgments which shall have been obtained for such debts ; and in every instance in which the company may become owners or claimants of lands, tenements or hereditaments, the board of directors are empowered to sell or dispose of the same, in such manner as they shall deem beneficial for the use of the company.

Article the 17th.

All bills, bonds, notes and every contract and engagement on behalf of the company shall be signed by the president and countersigned or attested by the cashier of the company; and the funds of the company shall in no case be held responsible for any contract or engagement whatever, unless the same shall be so signed, countersigned or attested, as aforesaid; and the books, papers, correspondence, and the funds of the company, shall at all times be subject to the inspection of the directors.

Article the 18th.

Dividends of the profits of the company or of so much of the said profits as shall be deemed expedient and proper, shall be declared and paid half yearly, during the months of January and July in every year, except the first year, which shall be declared in the month of January one thousand eight hundred and eleven; and the said dividends shall from time to time be determined by a majority of the directors at a meeting to be held for that purpose, and shall in no case exceed the amount of the profits actually acquired by the company, so that the capital stock thereof, shall never be impaired by dividends.

Article the 19th.

If the said directors shall at any time wilfully and knowingly make or declare any dividend which shall impair the said capital stock, all the directors who shall be present at the making or declaring such dividend, and assenting thereto, shall be liable in their individual capacity to the company for the amount or proportion of the said stock so divided by the said directors; and each director who shall be present at the making or declaring such dividend, shall be deemed to have consented thereto, unless he shall immediately declare in writing, his dissent, on the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

Article the 20th.

The bank shall be kept at some convenient place within the borough of Pittsburgh; unless in cases of contagion, invasion of an enemy, or some other reasonable cause, to be determined by the directors, for the time being, or a majority of them, at a meeting called for that purpose.

Article the 21st.

It is hereby expressly and explicitly declared to be the object of the persons who associate under the firm of "THE PRESIDENT AND DIRECTORS OF THE BANK OF PITTSBURGH," that the property or joint stock of the said company (exclusive of the dividend to be made in the manner herein mentioned) shall alone be responsible for the debts and engagements of the company; and that no person who shall or may deal with the said company, or to whom they shall or may become in any wise indebted, shall on any pretence whatever have recourse against the separate property of any present or future member of the company, or against their persons; but all persons accepting any bond, bill, note, or other contract of this company signed by the president and cashier of the company for the time being, or dealing with it in any manner whatsoever, thereby give credit respectively to one joint stock or property of said company; and thereby disavow having recourse, on any pretence to the person or separate property of any present or future member of this company, except as above mentioned; and suits brought against the company (if any shall be) shall be brought against the president for the time being; and in case of his death, removal from office, or resignation pending such suits against him, measures shall be taken, at the expence of the company, for substituting his successor in office as defendant, so that persons having any demands upon the company, may not be prejudiced or delayed by that event; or if the person suing shall go on against the person first named as defendant (notwithstanding his death, resignation or removal from office) this company shall take no advantage, by writ of error or otherwise, of such proceeding on that account; and all recoveries had, in manner aforesaid, shall be conclusive upon the company, so far as to render the company's said joint stock or property liable thereby, and no further; and the company shall immediately pay the amount of such recovery out of their joint stock, but not otherwise; and in case of any suit at law, the president shall sign his appearance or file common bail thereto; it being expressly understood and declared that all persons dealing with the said company, agree to these terms, and are to be bound thereby.

Article the 22nd.

The directors shall keep fair and regular entries in a book, provided for the purpose, of their proceedings, and on any question, when two directors voting shall require it, the yeas and nays of the directors voting shall be duly inserted in their minutes, and these minutes be at all times on demand produced to the stockholders, when at a general meeting the same shall be required.

Article the 23rd.

The association shall continue until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and thirty: But the proprietors of two-thirds of the capital stock of the company may, by their concurring vote at a general meeting to be called for that express purpose, dissolve the same at any prior period; provided that notice of such meeting and its object, be published in all the newspapers printed in the borough of Pittsburgh, for at least three months previous to the time appointed for such meeting.

Article the 24th.

These articles of agreement shall be published in all the newspapers printed in the borough of Pittsburgh, for one month; and for the further information of all persons who may transact business with, or in any measure give credit to this Company, every bond, bill, note, or other instrument of contract, by the effect or terms of which the Company may be charged, or held liable for the payment of money, shall specially declare, in such manner as the board of directors shall prescribe, that payment shall be made out of the joint funds of this Company, according to the present articles of this association, and not otherwise; and a copy of the twenty-first article of this association shall be inserted in every bank book of every person, depositing money or other valuable property with the Company for safe keeping; or a printed copy thereof shall be delivered to every person before such deposit shall have been received: And it is expressly declared that no engagement can be legally made in the name of said company, unless it contains a limitation or restriction to the effect above recited, and the company hereby expressly disavow all responsibility for any debt or engagement which may be made in their names, not containing a limitation or restriction to the effect aforesaid.

Article the 25th.

For the well ordering and conducting of the elections, the directors shall previously thereto, appoint three stockholders, not being directors, to be judges of the election, who shall conduct and regulate the same; they shall determine whether the persons voted for are duly qualified to be elected directors, and do come truly and plainly within the provisions of these articles, and after the conclusion of the ballot, shall decide and declare who are elected directors for the ensuing year.

Article the 26th.

Immediately on the dissolution of this association, certain effectual measures shall be taken by the existing directors for closing all concerns of the company, and for dividing the capital and profits which may remain among the stockholders, in proportion to their respective interests.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our names and firms, the twenty-fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten.

BANK OF PITTSBURGH.

From the rapid sale of the shares of the Bank of Pittsburgh allotted to Allegheny county, and from information received from the different places where books are to be opened on the 19th inst. there is reason to believe that the shares will generally be subscribed for, and the Bank go into operation at an earlier period than was at first contemplated.

As there are, no doubt, many persons in the country who would wish to invest their surplus money in this stock, which cannot fail of becoming very lucrative, we give this information, that they may have an opportunity of becoming purchasers, and participating in the advantages resulting from the institution.

It is of infinite importance to the institution that previous to doing business they should have a large sum in the vault—this accounts for the payment of the instalments at the short periods required in the articles of association; but, it is presumable, that as soon as circumstances will authorise it, the time will be prolonged for paying the remaining instalments so as to suit the convenience of the stockholders.

The books are opened every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from eleven to one o'clock, at the house of Mr. Spencer. An application to either of the commissioners, at any other time, will be immediately attended to.

---

The Governor has signed the bill for the removal of the seat of government from Lancaster to Harrisburgh.

An act has been passed by the legislature of this state, extending the time for patenting lands until the first of November next.

The legislature have fixed on the 20th of March for their adjournment.

The following description of the present democratic government of Pennsylvania, is given by DUANE, the leading democratic printer in Philadelphia. If democracy is thus spoken of by its best friends, how can those be justly censured who speak in milder terms of its misdeeds?

"Meanwhile our state legislators are raising their patricidal voices, under the banner of ignorance against the constituted authorities of the union; proclaimed by solemn resolutions, carried by clamours and confusion more shameful and unruly than the most reprobated proceedings of the French convention; and a motion of thanks to the President of the U. States is withdrawn through the corrupt influence of the executive of Pennsylvania.

"Persons concerned in the whiskey insurrection of 1794, are now concerned in ths treasonable proceedings at Lancaster, and the government of the state exhibits one of the most humiliating spectacles to the friends of representative government that is to be found in the annals of the world—where all the worst predictions of the enemies of free government have received a sanction in the triumph of depravity and ignorance over the probity and intellect of the state."

The Aurora represents that for thirteen long years, the constant efforts of the federalists were to procure "a surrender of the commerce and the manufactures of our homes to England." If this be true, it proves, indeed, what bunglers we are, compared with the democrats. During the whole period that federalists had the management of our affairs, and laboured, it seems, to surrender to England our commerce, that commerce in spite of their exertions, continued to increase in ratio altogether unexampled. On the other hand scarcely two years had elapsed after the democrats commenced their system of restrictive energies before trade almost entirely vanished from the view of Americans, and England found she had been put in possession of the commerce of the world.—Thus have the democrats accomplished, by a single measure, what they say Federalists were thirteen years labouring to attain, and who, at the end of that period, found themselves a hundred times further from their object than when they began. [U. S. Gaz.

The "dismissal of Mr. Jackson in France" no longer a mystery—or a full length discovery.——Six days ago, the Aurora, the leading print on the side of the American administration, attempted to feel the pulse of the people by a pretty strong touch; and boldly recommended 'An alliance with France.' This was preparatory to the promulgation of the French treaty, which Mr. Madison has, as I solemnly believe, had in his possession more than five weeks—Let my words be remembered.

Finding the alliance with France took pretty well, the Aurora has to-day gone further—He has, indeed, taken a long and a bold stride—He introduces the following texts of scripture, under pretence of recommending them to the perusal of Mr. Jackson, but, in reality, as I shall soon show, to give his party the COUNTERSIGN.

1. A wicked messenger falleth into mischief; but a faithful ambassador is health.
2. None shall die without instruction; yet in the greatness of your folly, ye shall listen to ruin.
3. ON THE PATH OF THY FEET PONDER WELL.
4. Pray: for the fear of the Lord prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
5. Least strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labors be in the house of a stranger.
6. Endow thyself with truth; her lips shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.
7. A crown of glory then shall be thine, and it shall give to thy bread an ornament of grace.
8. Not a proud look, nor yet a lying tongue, NOR HANDS THAT SHED INNOCENT BLOOD.
9. Surely he scorneth the scorners.
10. If thou be wise, thou wilt be wise for thyself, but if thou scorneth, THOU ALONE SHALL BEAR IT.
11. O! forsake the foolish and live and go in the way of understanding.
12. Unto the wicked their treasures profit nothing.
13. RICHES PROFIT NOTHING IN THE DAY OF WRATH.
14. In the way of the wicked is darkness; they know not at what they stumble.
15. Keep away from the false that speaketh LIES, and follow not him.
16. Not those of others, but his own iniquities, shall take the wicked himself; and he shall be holden with the cords of his own sin.
17. GET WISDOM GET UNDERSTANDING."

When I first saw the above, I threw it aside with—"The devil can quote scripture to his purpose."—But observing it copied into the Columbian last evening, my attention became more fixed——That Duane should meddle with the bible at all was a suspicious circumstance, and on reading the verses, most of them seemed little applicable to the purpose. I looked more narrowly, and as if by magic, the following letters arose to my astonished sight—

If the reader will take the trouble to select the initials letters of every verse, and transpose the letters in the manner here marked, he will find they give the acrostic, NAPOLEAN IS OUR KING——Thus, when Voltaire and his cotemporary infidels combined to destroy the Christian religion in Europe, they agreed upon and sent forth as the Word—"CRUSH THE WRETCH." The above article will be eagerly and expeditiously circulated through all the Democratic presses in the United States, as the signal for union on the side of France. And if the Martling Club and the Whig Club, should both seize upon it, and incorporate it in some of their resolutions, it need not surprize us.

The mystery has vanished——Mr. Jackson must go home——Mr. Pinckney must be recalled——and all intercourse with England cut off——"NAPOLEAN IS OUR KING" and he wills it.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

An intelligent and respectable correspondent informs us, that there has lately been found, in the northern part of this state, a singular kind of clay, which by the heat of fire, is converted into pure, fine transparent glass.—The peculiar properties of this Clay were thus accidentally discovered. Last summer, while Mr. George Scriba was builing a grist-mill at Rotterdam, on the Onida Lake, in digging a canal for the flume, the work men came to a bed of clay; of which however no notice was then taken. In the month of November, a stove was put up in the mill, for the benefit of the men who were employed in finishing the interior of the building.—Finding the house soon filled with smoke, the workmen applied this clay to the crevices of the stove pipe, In the course of a few hours the clay had disappeared; and on examining the inside of the stove, they found that the clay had been converted into fine and pure glass. Since that discovery, several experiments have been made to ascertain the qualities of this kind of earth. Two letters have been received briefly stating the result.

One of them says—"The melted clay, as it was poured out of the crucible, appeared of the consistance of molasses; and when it had cooled, it proved to be clear and beautiful glass, of a green tinge, and so strong, that it was with difficulty broken with the hand."

The other letter says—"I prepared a little furnace before a blacksmith's bellows, and blew one hour, when I found the clay well melted, and in a fluid state, so that it run out of the crucible in strings as thick as a straw, and produce a solid glass, which could be thus drawn from three to four feet long."

As this is an entire new discovery, it will doubtless receive the attention of the chymists and mineralogists of our country.—Com. Adv.

Birth-Day of Washington.

Endeared and cherished as the memory of our most beloved and most respected Patriot has ever been, on no former occasion has the anniversary of his birth been celebrated with more distinguished honors than in yesterday's commemoration of that auspicious event.

The bells of this city, at early dawn, ushered in the anniversary of the day that gave to this new world her WASHINGTON. At 10 o'clock, the members of the American Republican Societies assembled at the State House, where they took up their line of march in the following order.

Marshals of the Day,
Members of the Cincinnati,
Orator of the Day,
President of the American Republican Society and the Chief Justice of the State,

After which followed, the members of the Society, two and two, to the number of Five Hundred, when they proceeded down Sixth street to Market, down Market to the first Presbyterian Church, where they were received by captain Meeker's company of Infantry, who politely offered their services on the occasion, and proceeded into the Church.—On the entrance of the Cincinnati, an Anthem was begun and continued by a select society of Ladies and Gentlemen, untill the company were seated; after which, an appropriate prayer was made by the Rev. Dr. Staughton.

The orator of the day, Dr. Charles Caldwell, pronounced an oration, in which the virtues, the character, and principles of our beloved WASHINGTGN, were pourtrayed in correct, animated and brilliant colours. The feelings of every American present, who revered the principles of the father of his country beat high, and in perfect unison with the sentiments of the orator. Repeated bursts of applause testified their perfect approbation. An anthem and a blessing from the sacred desk concluded the arrangement. A more brilliant and respectable assembly has seldom been witnessed, on any similar occasion, in this city.

A regiment of cavalry, consisting of all the troops in this city, and some from the country, amounting to 250 men; paraded for the first time, under the command of Rt. Wharton, Esq. as senior captain. Their appearance was truly martial and splendid, and contributed very much to increase the honours of the day. Severalcompanies of infantry also paraded, in testimony of their respect to the day—a day which should always be held dear, by every friend to his country. Yesterday was indeed a proud day for the disciples of WASHINGTON—Let them always cherish and revere it.

In the afternoon the Society of American Republicans partook of a very excellent dinner, prepared by Mr. David Kennedy, to whose exertions and taste much credit is due; above Five Hundred persons sat down to table, and the company were honoured with the presence of the Chief Justice, and other distinguished characters.

Madame Bonaparte divorced.—Captain Turner, of the Amazon, from Hamburg, arrived at Philadelphia, informs, that his imperial majesty, Napoleon the 1st, has at length divorced his wife. He adds, that the official statement, or letter addressed to the public, announcing the fact, had been published before he sailed.

NEW-ORLEANS, Jan. 24.

Yesterday arrived Gun Vessel No. 65, from Jamaica, via Havannah. We are indebted to captain Carter for the following communication:

On the arrival of Gun Vessel No. 65 at Port Royal, Brown was at Kingston. He had deposited about 100,000 dollars in gold in the hands of Messrs. Dicks, Orr, and Clark. The vessel arrived late in the evening and early next morning he applied to those gentlemen and obtained bills drawn by them in their own favor and blank endorsed by them on David Dicks, Esq. Church-street London, for the amount. On application to the Duke of Manchester for the arrest and delivery of Brown, he stated the case to be "one in which he did not think he could interfere with propriety."

A warrant was obtained from the Mayor to apprehend and bring Brown before him; but it was not of authority sufficient to search for him, nor could one of that description be obtained. The bills are advertised and information has been transmitted to our minister at the court of St. James, to endeavor to stop the payment of them. In this our agent at Jamaica seems inclined to believe he will succeed. A few days before the departure of 65 from Jamaica, Brown sent word to the commercial agent of the U. States that he should prosecute him for defaming his character by the advertisement he inserted in the newspaper.

Messrs. Dick, Orr and Clark, a house of great respectability in Jamaica, seem anxious to do every thing to stop the payment of the bills, in order that they may be enabled to refund the money now in their hands.

A villain named Allen Kennedy, who owned the felucca previous to her arrest by this vessel, has received from Brown about 2700 pounds sterling, which he says is to indemnify him for the vessel and cargo—yet it is pretty well known the latter did not belong to him:

He told we that Brown was at a private boarding-house in the West end of the town: but in he would not inform me what house, and added, that as they were countrymen, he would not inform against him. This fellow offered the bills after they were advertised at a discount, to the drawers, which was rejected with indignation.

No doubt Brown was in Jamaica when I sailed. WM. CARTER, Jun.
Commanding Gun Vessel No. 65.

Gen. Wilkinson intends to spend the winter at New-Orleans, instead of repairing to the seat of Government.

MEDICINES,

FOR SALE BY

J. P. & J. W. Skelton,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DRUGGISTS.

Sing's warranted patent ITCH

Ointment. The only medicine in the world which will certainly cure the Itch, without having in it any thing dangerous or disagreeable.—Price 50 cents per box.

WORM TEA,

One of the most valuable medicines ever sold, for the destruction of worms in the human body, and more particularly adapted for children, of which complaint, thousands annually fall a sacrifice. It being now so well established that no certificates or encomiums are necessary to recommend it, being altogether a composition of vegetables; since this medicine was first discovered upwards of one hundred thousand persons have experienced its beneficial effects.—Price 25 cents single, and 2 dollars per dozen.

The Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers. There never was a medicine offered that has a greater claim to public approbation than this, as many thousands can testify. It would be needless to expatiate largely on the extraordinary virtues of these drops, it being the general received opinion, if taken regularly and according to directions, it is the most efficacious medicine in the known world, for the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers. Thousands can testify of their being cured by these drops, when the bark, and every other medicine had proved ineffectual, and not one in an hundred has had occasion to take more than one, and numbers not half a bottle.—Price 50 cents per bottle.

Patent German Eye Water,

A safe, certain and efficacious remedy for all diseases of the eyes.—Price 37 1-2 cents per bottle.

MILLS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for Sale the following property, adjoining the town of Canonsburgh, Washington county, viz. Fifty Acres of Land, more or less, well watered, chiefly first and second bottom, through which passes a branch of Big Chartiers, on which is erected a FULLING MILL, now in complete operation, the house of which is of good square logs; also, an OIL MILL and GRIST MILL, contained in one large and commodious stone building lately erected. All the apparatus in these mills is now in complete repair, and business is carried on in their several branches.

This stream is well known to be among the best in the western country for steadiness of water. The fall on which the mills are erected exceeds sixteen feet; and the situation is such, that another mill may be erected on said land, to be turned by the same water, without the expence of a second dam. There is also an eligible situation for a Tan-yard and Still-house, with the best of water for that purpose. There are also on the said land, two dwelling houses, commodiously planned and in good repair, with out-houses, and a good orchard of bearing apple trees.

The above Property will be offered for Sale by Public Vendue, on the premises, on the last Monday (the 26th) of March next, at which time and place the terms of Sale will be made known, and if sold, immediate possession given, by

WILLIAM M'MILLAN.

HAMILTON'S

Celebrated Worm Destroying LOZENGES,

(Selected from a very numerous list,)

ARE presented as indubitable proof of the excellence and safety of this valuable specific, for destroying worms in the human stomach and intestines.

From Mr. Benjamin Williams, No. 30, Baltimore street, two doors above south Gay street.

I have a son six years of age, who, for four years past, has been generally in a very unhealthy state, particularly in summer; frequently afflicted with alarming convulsion fits, the whole of his little frame wasted fast, his breath fetid, and almost constant itching at the nose was excited, with other alarming symptoms. During the course of the above period, the advice and attendance of three of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore were successively procured. Each of these gentlemen, in his turn, declared worms to be the cause of the child's disorder, and exhausted his skill in attempting to expel them. Pink root, steel filings, with a variety of other medicines, were administered without the least success. It was once pronounced impossible for the child to live many hours.

I had heard of your worm destroying Lozenges, but with many others did not think highly of so cheap a medicine, until a gentleman of my acquaintance (Mr. Wm. S. More, auctioneer) in whose family they had been used with good effect, advised me to make trial of them; I accordingly gave my son a dose agreeable to directions, which soon expelled eight large worms, some of them about eight inches in length; a second dose brought away four more of similar size; a third dose being administered, no worms appeared. The child recovered, and now enjoys a good state of health.

AFFIDAVIT.

Michael Duffy, residing at No 40, Walkes street, Fell's Point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following statement is just and true:

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls, the one five, and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms. They were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success, which only increased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment, I was told that Hamilton's worm destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate. I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects. The eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skin and slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health, which they still enjoy, though five months have nearly elapsed since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole seemed tobe inevitable.

To H. LEE.

Some time last spring, I was afflicted with loss of appetite, giddiness in the head, fever, and great debility, so that I could scarcely walk. In this distressing situation I took many things, but without benefit. An acquaintance in the country sent to me to procure a box of Hamilton's Lozenges. Curiosity prompted me to read the directions, where I found my complaint exactly described by the doctor. I immediately sent for another box of the Lozenges, and took one dose, which brought away a large quantity of worms, and I felt greatly relieved. Encouraged by this, I took another dose, which was attended with the happiest effects, as it relieved me entirely, and am now in a better state of health than for a considerable time past. I have since given them to my children, and can speak from experience, that they are a most valuable medicine, and am happy to add my testimony to numberless others of their efficacy.

Among the symptoms attending worms are, disagreeable breath, especially in the morning—bad and corrupted gums—itching in the nose and about the seat—convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech—irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious—purging, with slimy and fetid stools—vomiting—large and hard belly—pains and sickness at the stomach—pains in the head and thighs, with lowness of spirits—slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—a dry cough—excessive thirst—sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

LEE'S SOVEREIGN OINTMENT, for the Itch, a certain cure by once using; HAMILTON'S ELIXIR, for coughs; the celebrated ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS; HAMILTON'S ESSENCE OF MUSTARD, for the rheumatism; TOOTH ACHE DROPS; HAMILTON'S GRAND RESTORATIVE for debility.

Prevention better than Cure.

In cases of head-ache, foul stomach, and for removing superfluous bile, perhaps no remedy has been discovered superior to

Lee's Hahn's Anti-bilious Pills,

Which for 10 years past have been attended with the greatest success. The testimony of many respectable persons in our southern sea ports has been adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy during the prevalence of malignant fevers, has preserved their health after experiencing alarming symptoms of fever.

Certificate of Wm. Devenny.

During the last nine years, I have been in the habit of using Hahn's Anti-bilious Pills, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, whenever colds, head-ache, or costiveness have rendered medicine necessary; in these cases a single dose has uniformly removed my head-ache, and has generally been found sufficient to remove every symptom of a cold, if taken on its first appearance. Induced by the benefit I received, I have for years past recommended them to many of my friends, and I have the pleasure to inform you, they have invariably succeeded in removing the above complaints.

Yours, Wm. Devenny.
